

Today's United Way of Waco-McLennan County is guided by the principles of addressing the greatest needs in the areas of education, health and financial stability, inspiring investment to help us address those needs, and engaging you, our community stakeholders, in working alongside us.

Your United Way fights for our children, families, and individuals. We strive to help lift up our communities and together, with you, we help change lives.

We are pursuing a bold path forward so that:

- ALL children can be born healthy and have the skills needed to be successful in school and in life
- ALL families and individuals can achieve greater financial stability
- ALL residents will have access to food, shelter, and support when needed.
